I am the Good Shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

This is why the Father loves Me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

Dear Friends,

This is the last weekend of our three-week drive to update our parish Time and Talent Survey information. We are distributing forms this weekend for anyone who may not have completed one the past two weekends. Please take a few minutes to complete the survey and drop it in the collection basket today. Volunteer in as many areas as fit your schedule. If you already volunteer in certain ministries, please check them again as we will be compiling new lists. A committee person will contact you with more information regarding the ministries for which you volunteer. Our altar server ministry is open to any child in fourth grade or higher. We encourage our young folks to participate. Training will be given at a later date.

This Sunday is the last Sunday for Religious Education classes until the Fall. After the 10:00 am Mass, we will hold our May Crowning and will follow with an Ice Cream Social sponsored by the Hearts and Hands of Mary women's group.

The Diocese has created a new website – The Catholic Climate Covenant (www.catholicclimatecovenant.org) - in conjunction with Earth Day (April 22nd). More information will follow.

God Bless You,
*Father Clarence.

Beth Buczkowski and Jim Szymaniak (the contemporary Christian acoustic duo MENDED who performed at our Get Together Dinner in March) have recorded a beautiful CD of Christian music. If you ordered one at the dinner, they are available for pickup at the Rectory during office hours. The cost is $15. We have extra copies if you didn't get a chance to pre-order.

Family Perspective from the Office of Family Life Education (A Hope Appeal Agency):

The gospel description of the Good Shepherd is a job description for parenting. Parents must ‘know’ their children and ‘freely lay down their lives’ each day by sacrificing for their children. Even when they don’t want to listen, children must ‘hear our voice’. Like Jesus, it is our job to ‘lead’ our children to the Father.
